Session One

The Firestorm: Making Hope-filled Choices

Carol addresses the inevitable challenges our faith goes through and that at some point in our lives, our faith is often tested by a faith-shaking experience. The scripture is from Daniel...emphasizing that sometimes God delivers us from the heat of the storm, but "even if he does not," we can still choose unwavering faith.

Session Two

Burning Bushes

This session addresses those "marker moments" in our lives when we are confronted with the voice and/or the power of God when we most need it and when we least expect it. The challenge is this: when life is confusing, look back on the "burning bush experiences" in your life and remember what God did. We see our frailties and limitations, but we also know that God loves, enjoys, delights in, and even celebrates our fellowship, as we develop enduring faith.

Session Three

Unquenchable Faith

This session will deal with what happens when the flame of adversity comes face to face with the God of the Flame. Carol will discuss how to pierce the darkness and reveal what happens when the light of the Shekinah glory of God illuminates, transforms, and changes the landscape of our lives, our families, and our churches into an unstoppable faith.

Reservations by March 14th please. Registration for the day is $10.00 in advance by sending your check to FEFC, 1009 Maryland Hwy, Mountain Lake Park, MD, 21550. Registration at the door is $12.00. A love offering will be taken. Handicap accessibility is at the rear of the church. To reserve a table for your women's group, send a list of names along with your check. Carpooling encouraged. For further information, contact Gail Getty at 240-321-2182.

Featuring

Carol Kent loves to teach the Bible, and she generously weaves scripture, stories, and applications for life throughout her presentations. With her husband Gene, she founded the nonprofit organization, Speak Up for Hope, which benefits inmates and their families.

Carol is a popular international public speaker best known for being dynamic, humorous, encouraging, and biblical. She is a former radio show co-host and has often been a guest on Focus on the Family. She regularly appears on a wide variety of nationally syndicated radio and television broadcasts. Past appearances have included the Billy Graham Prime Time Special, Dateline NBC, CNN, LIFE Today with James Robison, Family Life Today, and 100 Huntley Street.

Carol holds a master's degree in communication arts and a bachelor's degree in speech education. Some of her books include: Becoming a Woman of Influence, When I Lay My Isaac Down, A New Kind of Normal, Between a Rock and a Grace Place, Secret Longings of the Heart, Tame Your Fears, Speak Up With Confidence, and her newest release, Unquenchable. She has been featured on the cover of Today's Christian Woman, and her articles have been published in a wide variety of magazines.

Jen Hamilton Hawley returns for a third year to lead our times of worship. Jen teaches piano and voice in Germantown, and has recently released, "Spend Your Heart," an album influenced by her mother Margie. Jen attended Southern High School and is married to Dave, her partner in leading worship at Seneca Creek Church.
